Kingdom Advisors Principles

Ron Blue, Roy Russell, Alistair Begg

Exhilaration filled the conference as long time author and teacher Ron Blue kicked off the three day event for Kingdom Advisors. Over 700 Christian financial professionals attended this phenomenal event with guest speakers headlining this event such as Alistair Begg and Randy Alcorn.

The conference integrates faith and practice. The focus was on understanding and implementing a biblical world view rather than the more common secular world view as we deal with the public. How we put our faith into practice is relevant. As James 2:17 states, "In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead."

A biblical world view is radically different than what is practiced in the workplace today. It affects everything that we do. Each life we touch is affected by the way we treat one another. God's word illuminates the path as we counsel about investing, estate planning, debt, savings, and child rearing. We seek to be a beacon or lighthouse to those who desperately need the light of Christ.

Alistair Begg challenged us with a stirring message from Romans 12:2, "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." We are to rise above the world around us constantly choosing to live a life that will glorify our Savior.

Another, world class speaker on the venue was Randy Alcorn. He is author of over 30 best-selling books including my favorite book called "Heaven". He reminded us that we are here to bless others. This life is not about us but others. We are to be generous and seek to put God's wealth back into circulation. We are to look for opportunities to give and leave a legacy that impacts others for Christ.

I hope that you are inspired today as I leave you with this quote. Missionary C.T. Studd said, "Only one life, 'twill soon be past; only what's done for Christ will last."
